Background:

The past 20+ years I have worked in a seafood retail and whole business. My responsibilities included, dealing with wholesalers and food distributors, ensuring the best possible pricing and quality seafood. Making sure deliveries were received in the time frame stated, made necessary adjustments when needed. Communicating with employees, ensuring everyone understands their tasks for the day/week. Assisting them in reaching the goals set for the day/week. Also, being able to communicate to a wide range of customers, through point-of-sale and provide information to assist in purchase decisions.

Adapting to the forever changing of today's society, being able to convey properly to my peers and always wanting/willing to learn are just a few of my quality traits. Listed below are more examples:
